Hundreds of Friends Attend
Funeral Service Held for Robert M. MacMillan—Masonic Ritual Is Conducted
At Graveside

CARBONDALE, Sept. 29.—With hundreds of friends and relatives in attendance, the funeral of Robert M. MacMillan, local business man and well known resident took place from his late home, 32½ Canaan street, on Saturday afternoon. Services in the home were in charge of the Rev. S. Turner Foster, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Burial was in the Maplewood cemetery.

Members of the Knights of Pythias attended the funeral in a body. The graveside services were conducted by the Masonic order and there was an escort of Knight Templars. The large number present and the many floral tributes showed the high esteem in which Mr. MacMillan was held.

The casket bearers were: Albert Nicol, Alex Ditchburn, H. N. Lake, Harvey Williams, Edward Auger and George Gallaway. The flower bearers were: Boyd Oliver, Larry Nelson, Evan Thomas, Grant Nicholson, Irving Snyder and Maurice Clifford, all members of the Knights of Pythias.
